

THE MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW

JAMES A. COX
Editor-in-Chief
mwbookrevw@aol.com
<http://www.midwestbookreview.com>

278 Orchard Drive
Oregon WI 53575
(608) 835-7937
mbr@execpc.com

MBR Bookwatch: June 2012
James A. Cox, Editor-in-Chief
Midwest Book Review
278 Orchard Drive, Oregon, WI 53575

Micah's Bookshelf

Revisiting Anne Marie
Marie Rundquist
Infinity Publishing.com
c/o Buy Books On The Web
1094 New Dehaven Street, #100
West Conshohocken, PA 19428-2713
9780741470447, $22.95, www.amazon.com

Within our family history are many stories that lead into ours. "Revisiting Anne Marie: How An Amerindian Woman of Seventeenth-Century Nova Scotia and a DNA Match Redefine American Heritage" is tracing the history of a family back in 1755, from Nova Scotia to Maryland. A long story wrought with tragedy for a people and going forward, "Revisiting Anne Marie" is a fine and compelling piece of the family puzzle. Also from Marie Rundquist concerning genealogy is "Cajun By Any Other Name: Recovering the Lost History of a Family and a People" (9780741470423, $11.95), tracing the family lines into Louisiana and the Cajun people.

Micah Andrew
Reviewer